

Louise Bang

Regional Director of Sales, Global Sales Office, London Ritz Carlton Hotels LLC (the world's most admired and successful luxury hotel operator). Louise shares a vast international experience with a global approach to business given her unique in-depth understanding of cultures and the hospitality industry.

Strong Beliefs

Our employees are our most valuable resource.

Empowerment drives service excellence and innovation.

Culture is not part of the game, culture is the game.

Main Theme

Legendary Service

With Hospitality Industry experience encompassing both Global Sales and on-property Hotel Experience Louise Bang has gained her expertise through more than 18 years experience working for the world leading hotel groups including The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company, L.L.C., Marriott International and Hilton International.

Louise completed her degree in at the University of Surrey graduating in 1996 with a BSC in Hotel and Catering Management with First Class Honors. Upon completion of her Bachelor's degree, Louise joined Marriott International to open the Global Sales Organization in Barcelona, Spain. In 2000 Louise joined the Hotel Arts Barcelona, Spain, operated by Ritz-Carlton.

In 2005 personal decisions led Louise to move to Amman, Jordan where she took on the role of Account Director for the Middle East's leading PR companies. Following this, Louise returned to the UK to start her own consultancy.

In March of 2007 Louise was appointed Regional Director of Sales for The Ritz-Carlton, London Global Sales Office and is also currently completing her MBA at Cass Business School in London.

Louise is also tri-lingual in English, Spanish and Danish with understanding of Swedish, Norwegian, French and some knowledge of Arabic and has experience of working with more than 15 countries.